

Input

User enters a name of an alumni or selects a graduation year then searches for an alumni.

Process

Website looks up the alumni the user has searched for in the database. If the alumni exists, then the results will show. If the alumni does not exist, results will return void.

Output

The name and contact info of the alumni. If result was void output will say "Alumni does not exist."